

Josianne Psani	I believe that relatives should respect the wishes of the donor.
Luke Vella	i agree that after my death i might be able to save some else life ..
Ruth Bonello Gellel	I'm an organ donor and wish that my decision is final, nobody else has the right to take the final decision for me, not even my closest relatives.
Stefania Farrugia	I love life and why not after my dead I can give life for someone who need!
Patricia Mifsud	I'm a potential donor and don't want my next of kin or anyone else to have the legal right to override my wishes.