Good afternoon,

With respect to the recently issued White paper on the setting up of a robust Human Rights and Equality Framework, please find below a note your kind consideration:

The EU Charter of Fundamental Rights states that everyone has the right to freedom of expression. However, there exists an absence of protection against press intrusions or the disclosure in the media of details of an individual's private life.

Kindly refer to Article 7 for a description of the fundamental right and the definition of 'private life'.

In addition, Article 54 describes the prohibition of abuse of rights and freedoms recognised in the mentioned Charter.

Regards,

Lara
